Chapter 1 by Magdalene

"I wasn't always mutant, you know," I say to my friend who sat on the other couch. We had just finished a conversation of being mutant & left on an awkward note.

He looked at me & raised an eyebrow. "Oh? I've never heard this."

I blushed & looked down. "One of the worst times in my life. I was weak & tired & dumb. I ..." I hesitated and looked down at my skin. It could've been easily taken as an olive skin tone but if you looked closer you could see there was a bluish tint. My navy wings folded inside out nervously & I played with my talon-like fingernails. "I was human."
